

A GUIDE FOR PLANNERS

Working together

Stationery, signage and the guest experience, planned as one.

MAX AND MAIDEN INK

Thank you for bringing us into your event.

We design branding, stationery, signage and guest-experience details for highly considered celebrations, at home in New Jersey and around the world. This guide shows how we work alongside you, what we need and when, so every piece arrives on time and exactly as planned.

Warmly, Jennifer

WHAT WE CREATE

Event branding

Monograms, marks and a visual language for the whole celebration.

Save the dates and invitation suites

Custom and semi-custom, in letterpress, foil and fine papers.

Day-of paper

Menus, place cards, programs and every small piece guests hold.

Signage and displays

Welcome and bar signs, and escort displays guests remember.

Installations

Dimensional pieces, from feature walls to the dance floor.

Guest experience

The details that carry one look from the first envelope to the last dance.

Confidential event? Tell us at inquiry, and we'll sign your NDA before you share details.

Five steps, one rhythm

1 Inquiry

Send the date, venue, guest count, design direction and scope. We reply personally, and sign your NDA first if the project is confidential.

2 Kickoff

One point of contact on each side, one shared folder for files and approvals, and a date for first concepts.

3 Design and proofs

An initial round of proofs and two revisions are included. Any further round is $25.

4 Production

We confirm counts, sizes, placements and venue rules, then send a production spec for each piece for your sign-off.

5 Install and after

Delivery details a week ahead, pieces handed over ready to use, and full credit for you and your team when we share the work.

Stationery dates to build into every plan

5–10

MONTHS OUT

Save the dates in the mail

Or 7 to 10 months for destination weddings and many out-of-town guests.

4–6

WEEKS

Final approval and payment

Before printed pieces are needed for letterpress or foil, plus time to ship. Multiple print methods can take longer.

12

WEEKS OUT

Invitations in the mail

We can assemble and mail them for you, with vintage postage if you like.

WEEKS OUT

The RSVP date

Approximately, so final numbers arrive in time for seating and escort displays.

AT INQUIRY, IT HELPS TO HAVE

- ◇ Event date, venue and guest count
- ◇ Design direction, mood boards or decor plans
- ◇ The scope: stationery, signage and displays, installations or full event branding
- ◇ Your deadline for first concepts
- ◇ Whether the event is confidential

SIGNAGE AND INSTALLATIONS

Seven questions, answered before production

- 1 What material is being used?
- 2 What are the finished dimensions?
- 3 How is it being fabricated?
- 4 Does the artwork require contour-cut paths?
- 5 Are elements printed, layered, dimensional, engraved or applied?
- 6 How will the piece stand or mount?
- 7 What files does the manufacturer need?

WHAT WE CONFIRM WITH YOU

- ◇ Final guest count and seating, for escort displays and place cards
- ◇ Sizes and placements for each sign and installation
- ◇ Venue rules on hanging, fixing and access times
- ◇ The delivery address, date and on-site contact

Once these are locked, you receive the production spec for each piece to sign off.

Arriving ready

A week before

You receive the full piece list, the delivery date and time, the address, and the name and number of the studio's contact on site.

Caring for acrylic

Acrylic pieces travel with their protective film on. Peel it just before guests arrive, and clean only with an acrylic-safe cleaner and a soft cloth, never an ammonia-based glass cleaner.

After the event

When the photographs arrive, we'd love to see them. We credit you, the venue and the whole team whenever we share the work.

We'd love to hear about your next event.
